

Ithaca Agway: Native Bee and Pollinator Homes

 Nature's Way Better Gardens Deluxe Insect House: This insect house's multi-chamber design attracts the largest variety of beneficial insects (5 chambers).	 Nature's Way Better Gardens Pollinator House: attract gentle solitary bees capable of pollinating up to 20x that of honeybees to help your plants reach their full potential.	 Solitary Bee Hive is constructed with stacking trays which can be opened for inspection and cleaning. The hole sizes of this habitat attract non-swarming bees like the Red Mason Bee, Leafcutter Bee and other solitary bees.
 Welliver Mason Bee House provides an ideal bee-keeping solution for the busy homeowner or part-time gardener. The house is equipped with paper tubes where the female bees can lay eggs from March to August.	 Welliver's Standard Mason Bee House is durably constructed of 3/4" cedar, the Welliver Mason Bee house will provide a lasting habitat with minimal upkeep.	 Wildlife World's Bug and Bee House in it's new gift packaging provides a home for solitary bees, ladybirds and other beneficial insects such as lacewings.
 Wildlife Worlds Butterfly and Moth Habitat provides safe haven for butterflies, moths and other insects in your garden. The rear of the Dewdrop Insect house may be opened so that some twigs or straw can be added.		